Pearson's coefficient estimate is quite close to zero because U and V are independent